

Our CEO is appointed by Hong Kong Financial Services Development Council to their Policy Research Committee

17 January 2023

The Financial Services Development Council (FSDC) today announced the appointment and reappointment of members to its committees with effect from January 17, 2023. Our CEO, Eric Ng, is appointed by FSDC as a new member of their Policy Research Committee. Eric Ng said, “It is a wonderful opportunity to work with the financial industry thought leaders to consolidate Hong Kong’s leading status as an international financial center connecting to the world. It also provides me great opportunities to learn from the committee members and the FSDC professionals. Will do my best to contribute to the greater good of Hong Kong.”

Please see press release from FSDC, click here.