We take happiness very seriously at Happiness Capital and believe that what you don't measure, you don't manage. As a part of our commitment to our mission, not only did we honor the rigorous standards of becoming B Corp certified, but we also internally created a Happiness Return Index with the help of our esteemed advisor Jed Emerson, a global guru in impact investing, along with our consultants SVT Group and 60 Decibels. With this exciting news to start off 2023, we're very encouraged to continue our journey in creating more happiness and impact in the world!
